

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Janet Wilwerding, Development & Communications Specialist, 515-309-9406, jwilwerding@pleasanthilliowa.org

Mayor Sara Kurovski Named Recipient of 2015 Meredith Emerging Women of Influence Award

PLEASANT HILL, Iowa – June 16, 2015 – The Business Record has named Sara Kurovski, Mayor of Pleasant Hill as the recipient of the Meredith Emerging Women of Influence Award. Entering its sixteenth year, the Business Record's Women of Influence awards celebrate the work of women who have made a difference personally or professional for other women to follow.

"Mayor Kurovski joins the list of Emerging Women of Influence Award recipients because of her extraordinary commitment to give back to the community, said Cathy Jensen Executive Director of the Pleasant Hill Chamber of Commerce. "Kurovski is committed to making a difference for those businesses and residents within Pleasant Hill and the surrounding communities." "It's great to have a Mayor who encourages young men and women to get involved and make a difference by connecting with others, improving lives and strengthening our community."

The Business Record's Emerging Women of Influence Award recognizes the next generation of women who have been and will continue to make an impact on communities in Iowa. Each year, the award recognizes an up-and-coming female leader who has achieved career success and recognition within her peer group for her community involvement and looks forward to taking on an even larger community-wide role in the future.

"I am honored to be among the women who are making a real difference to influence future community leaders, said Mayor Sara Kurovski." "I encourage everyone to volunteer personally or professionally and commit to making a positive impact." "As Mayor of Pleasant Hill, I believe it's our civic duty to get more involved and take pride in the difference we are making in the community."

The annual recognition event will be held on Thursday, August 13th from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Downtown Des Moines Marriott. Tickets are $35 with a table discount available. For information or to register, click here.

###