

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Friday, December 9, 2016

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Janet Wilwerding
Development & Communications Specialist
O: 515.309.9406
C: 515.402.1783
jwilwerding@pleasanthilliowa.org

City of Pleasant Hill Longevity Service and Awards Ceremony on Tuesday, Dec. 13 in City Council Chambers

PLEASANT HILL, Iowa – The City of Pleasant Hill will host their annual Longevity Service and Awards Ceremony on Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2016. The banquet will begin at 6 p.m. followed by an awards ceremony at 6:30 p.m. in the Council Chambers at 5160 Maple Drive in Pleasant Hill.

The ceremony will recognize the men and women for their commitment and employment to the City and the residents we serve. The longevity awards range from five to 25 years.

Longevity Award recipients include:

Five years:

- Jeremy Bassett, Police Department
- Jesse Farrell, Police Department
- Brandon Gillette, Fire Department
- Amanda Harrison, Fire Department
- Adam Jobe, Fire Department
- Melanie Mueller, Police Department
- Crystal Parsons, Public Works and Parks & Recreation
- Martin VanHouten, Public Works

Ten years:

- Joe Chebuhar, Public Works
- Ivan Cortes, Fire Department
- Harold Ford, Fire Department
- Boyd Jones, Fire Department
- Justin Kingkade, Fire Department
- Cindy Konrad, City Clerk's Office
- Daniel Negrete, Fire Department
- Jamie Xayavong, Fire Department

Fifteen years:

- Christopher Ford, Fire Department
- Ronald Zimmerman, Police Department

Twenty years:

- Samuel Patterson, Fire Department

Twenty-five years:

- John Lerdal, Public Library

#