Mayor Kurovski Announces Appointments to City of Pleasant Hill Boards and Commissions

PLEASANT HILL, Iowa – The Pleasant Hill City Council approved new appointments on Library Board of Trustees and Public Arts Advisory Commission. These appointments play a vital role in city government and advise the Council on a wide-range of issues.

“These individuals play an important part as they dedicate and serve the residents within this community,” said Mayor Sara Kurovski. “The nominees appointed not only bring a great deal of experience, but they have a strong desire to enhance their community while planning for our future. I am confident these appointees will help us reach our long-range goals. I encourage individuals interested in City government or those interested in serving the City in some capacity to contact City officials or staff and submit a resume. We want to know your interests should a vacancy become available in the near future.”
