

Cell Phone Usage

Use of cell phones is permitted in the library. If a conversation interferes with other patrons' use of the library or the staff's work, the patron will be asked to either end the conversation, use the front entrance to continue, or leave the facility. Repeated occurrences of loud or disruptive conversations may result in further action being taken. When entering the library, ring features should be turned off or set to the vibrating mode.